As a small boy of seven years, he came with his parents in the pioneer trek of 1848 to Utah, arriving in Great Salt Lake Valley, September 24, where the family lived for the next few years. Sometime during 1860 the Jacobs moved to Provo Valley, locating in the area of the Upper Snake Creek.

It was in Mound City that Ira met and courted Julia Jemeyma Gerber, daughter of Dr. John and Anna Maria Ackeret Gerber, pioneers of 1854. Julia ~~was~~ was born August 22, 1845, at Gravois near St. Louis, Missouri. They were married at Mound City, January 5, 1863, and began a happy life together. However, as Ira reported in his father's diary, "My dear wife Julia lost her life in giving birth to our first child. (March 26, 1864), whom we named Ira Julian. He only lived 16 days being born March 23, 1864, and died April 2nd." Mother and babe were buried in the same grave in what is called the "Upper Cemetery." This was a great sorrow for Ira, as well as other members in the small community, as gracious Julia Jemeyma was beloved by all who knew her.

she never failed to raise her voice and thank her Heavenly Father for His mercy and blessings to her family. The last 10 years of her life she was miserable with rheumatism, which kept her from doing the things she would have liked to have done. One time she was burning the trash and the wind carried the sparks to the pig pen, which was badly damaged, but she was able to save the pigs. In 1926 they had another fire that destroyed the straw stack, ear shed and some pigeons, and they were very fortunate in extinguishing it without further damage.

She passed away on April 29, 1927, at the age of 76, and has five living children, 17 grandchildren, and 34 great grandchildren, who honor her memory and are thankful that she died strong in the faith.

ISAAC AND THEA ANDERSON JACOB

Isaac Jacob was born May 11, 1876, at Midway, Wasatch County, son of Joseph and Ellen Gerber Jacob. He married Thea Anderson on June 20, 1905. She was the daughter of Rasmus and Rebecca Polm Anderson, and was born December 9, 1884 at Heber.

His parents were early settlers of Heber Valley, settling at Snake Creek in 1862. When Ike (Isaac) was six years old the family moved from Midway to Deer Creek, where his father homesteaded the acre. Ike lived there until 1907, when he moved to Heber City with his wife.

He has said of his early childhood: "I grew up much like the other boys of those days, on a farm, a little wild and untrained. However, I had a wonderful mother, who always instilled in the hearts and organizations of the Church. She taught us to look forward to going on missions. Father always had a few sheep on the place when we were small. We learned the sheep business, which I have followed all my life."

Like his brother Milt, and their father Joseph, started commercial woodsmen in Wasatch County in 1870, when they leased the cooperative sheep herd of the valley. At the end of four years they bought out the interests of all who would sell and started their own herd of 5000 sheep. He retired from the sheep business in 1949, at which time he had 5000 animals.

Ike and Thea moved to Pocatello, Idaho, in 1907, to Pleasant Grove in 1941, and bought a house on St. George in 1952, where they have lived ever since.

He served a mission to Finland, 1897-1899. He was on the State High Council, Wasatch Stake, 1912-17. Temperance State, 1922-40. He also served as a sheep's agent, 1921-23. Bishop, 1923-25, at Bonneville Ward in Pocatello.

He was a member of the High Council, Quorum presidency, Utah Stake, 1914-17. Heber City constituency, 1910-17. Then children are: John, Thea, Howard, Wesley, Charles E., Mable, Eugene, Elsie, and Calvin, Kay, and Vernon.

IARS CHRISTIAN JASPERSON

Iars Christian Jasperson was born July 27, 1885, in Jordan, Utah. His childhood was spent on the western part of the country. He was an accomplished horseman. After graduation from school he started to be a wheelwright and a miller. He worked in many mills in Utah, some of them being windmills, and he could only work when the wind blew.

He was converted to the gospel in 1911, and A. B. Rector of Arden, Utah, was his instructor at that time, was responsible for his conversion. However, he was not baptized till he came to this country. He was baptized in Ephraim on August 14, 1925.

He worked in a mill at Mt. Pleasant, Utah, from there moved to Arden in 1926, then in the spring of 1927 he moved to Heber. He then came to Heber City, where he is now living.

I had his best to provide the necessities of life. They were the parents of four children, about six weeks after the youngest was born, Janet became ill with cancer. She was in Janet Lake for medical treatment, made no progress, and so returned home. She died 18 months later, she died at the age of 24. Iars was heartbroken and became despondent. Sometime after his wife's death he traveled to Elsinore in the hope that his family could help provide for his children, but it was not possible for his step-father to help, so he returned home and lived in his home.
